

Insights into Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE

The Vienna House and the CENTRAL EUROPE Programme kindly invite you to join an evening of inspiring talks and networking about future funding opportunities of the transnational Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE Programme.

Funds of EUR 80 million will soon be dedicated in a first call to transnational projects to work on innovation, low carbon solutions, environmental and cultural resources as well as transport in central and eastern European regions.

The Interreg CENTRAL EUROPE Programme is managed by the City of Vienna and has encouraged transnational cooperation since 2007 among all regions of the central European countries Austria, Czech Republic, Germany, Hungary, Italy, Poland, Slovakia, and Slovenia. Croatia has newly joined the programme.
